

As a member of the Team in Training program, I have set a personal goal to raise a minimum of $3,000 for the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society. No matter how long it takes me to finish cycling 100 miles, leukemia and lymphoma patients throughout the world will be winners. So will you and I! I ride in honor of Andy Yost a current MDS patient, and my dad who passed away this past Christmas, also with MDS, a form of pre-leukemia. Check on my progress often at <<http://www.cs.jhu.edu/~houlahan/bike>>. -- Joanne Houlahan

About the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society: The Leukemia and Lymphoma Society is a not-for-profit, voluntary health organization whose mission is to cure leukemia and its related cancers—lymphoma, multiple myeloma, and Hodgkin's disease—and improve the quality of life of patients and their families. They are one of the country's leading charitable organizations, with an impressive 75% of total expenses included in the Society's annual report spent on their mission.
