build a blizzardy snowglobe

- speed-peel a hard-boiled egg
- nail holes along the design
- hot water melts the ice
- add a small candle. light.

wrap a merry wreath

- stretch the hanger into a circle.
- layer the greenery.
- secure with floral wire.

craft an orange pomander

- graft a citrus tree
- speed-peel a hard-boiled egg
- mold clay animals

make a tin-can luminary

- freeze so the can stays firm.
- nail holes along the design.
- hot water melts the ice.
- add a small candle. light.
serve and pair champagne
Champagne’s flavors include lemon, hazelnut, green apple, and toast, as well as floral undertones.

The flute’s long shape displays champagne’s brilliant bubbles.

Champagne’s flavors include lemon, hazelnut, green apple, and toast, as well as floral undertones.

The flute’s long shape displays champagne’s brilliant bubbles.

Serve and pair pinot noir
Herbs, bananas, cherries, lavender, and strawberries often contribute to the wine’s juicy flavor.

Serve and pair pinot grigio
Pinot grigio is known to contain lively hints of minerals, cucumber, apple, lemon, and herbs.

Drink from a small tulip glass to enjoy this wine’s crisp taste.

Pinot grigio is known to contain lively hints of minerals, cucumber, apple, lemon, and herbs.

Drink from a small tulip glass to enjoy this wine’s crisp taste.

Serve and pair chardonnay
Many detect the rich tastes of butter, pear, hazelnut, orange, and vanilla in chardonnay.

A small tulip glass focuses chardonnay’s flavors at the rim.

Many detect the rich tastes of butter, pear, hazelnut, orange, and vanilla in chardonnay.

A small tulip glass focuses chardonnay’s flavors at the rim.

Serve and pair merlot
Bell peppers, mixed berries, star anise, cinnamon, and plums lend some spice to merlots.

A large tulip glass showcases merlot’s earthy bouquet.

Bell peppers, mixed berries, star anise, cinnamon, and plums lend some spice to merlots.

A large tulip glass showcases merlot’s earthy bouquet.

Serve and pair cabernet sauvignon
“Cabs” are enlivened by the flavors of blackberries, bell peppers, cigar, black pepper, and cloves.

The Bordeaux’s tilted shape showcases the wine’s aromas.

“Cabs” are enlivened by the flavors of blackberries, bell peppers, cigar, black pepper, and cloves.

The Bordeaux’s tilted shape showcases the wine’s aromas.
identify men's facial hair styles

Which 'stache is right for you—a horseshoe or a fu manchu? Enlarge this guide with a photocopier, cut out the mustaches, and try them on for size.

get a clean shave

Start with a warm shower. Trim the beard, if needed. Rinse it creamy shelf in water. Spread in circular motion. Shave with the grain. Rinse every few strokes. Shave with the grain. Rinse; pat dry. Slap with a little aftershave.

(links to images of mustaches and shaving steps)
000  fix a flat tire

307  teach a kid to ride a bike

Suit her up in protective gear.

Raise the training wheels each week.

Remove them when she's ready.

Find an open, sloping grassy area.

Walk while balancing on the saddle.

Support her shoulders.

Listen to her fears.

Tuck her into her own bed.

Spray monster repellent.

Isolate the gum.

Apply ice until the gum breaks.

Combs out the pieces.

Select vegetables together.

Prepare them as a team.

Serve veggies first.

Let him see you eat them.

Make a goofy design.

Cut eight "tentacles."

Add raisins for eyes.

Serve a banana-octopus snack.

277  remove gum from a child's hair

310  convince a child to eat veggies

278  serve a banana-octopus snack

308  banish imaginary monsters

Listen to her fears.

Tuck her into her own bed.

Spray monster repellent.

Set up a trap.

Turn on a night-light.

Big, hairy, and . . .

Create an edible garden

Select vegetables together.

Prepare them as a team.

Serve veggies first.

Let him see you eat them.

Make a goofy design.

Cut eight "tentacles."

Add raisins for eyes.

Serve a banana-octopus snack.
443 identify edible plants

1. Separate the plant parts.
2. Check for foul odors.
3. Rub on your skin.
4. Rub on your lips.
5. Chew.
6. Touch to your tongue.
7. Eat a small handful.
8. Check for foul odors.

444 walk safely in a swamp

- Walk near plants. Where there’s vegetation, there’s solid ground!
- Probe suspicious areas with a stick.
- Keep your feet close together.
- Polish with chocolate.

446 get out of quicksand

- Get a walking stick handy? Place it under your hips.
- Maneuver onto your back.
- Wide arms and legs increase your surface area, buoying you up.
- Run in a zigzag pattern.
- Cover your eyes.
- Wide arms and legs increase your surface area, buoying you up.

445 light a fire with a soda can

1. Place chocolate inside.
2. Light a match.
3. Focus sunlight to light the match.
4. Push with chocolate.

447 wrestle an alligator

- Run in a zigzag pattern.
- Cover your eyes.
- If bit, punch its snout.
- Press on the gator’s neck.
- Run in a zigzag pattern.